

Want to Serve on the 121RN Executive Board?

Now Accepting Nominations for SEIU 121RN Executive Board Representatives!

Our 121RN Bylaws state that the “Executive Board shall be composed of Local Union officers, all Chapter Presidents, or permanent designee, plus one elected Representative for every 400 members, or portion thereof...” Elected Representatives are paid a stipend for their service.

The Chapter Vice President and Secretary-Treasurer are not automatic members of the Executive Board, and are welcome to run for a representative position.

Executive Board nomination forms are due by Feb. 16.

Return the nomination form on the back by
Feb. 16 to a Union Steward or to our Union Representative Melvi De La Cruz, RN.
Forms may be faxed to (909) 484-3114.

All Executive Board Representatives:

- Must be members in good standing.
- Will support and carry out the decisions of the 121RN Union-wide Leadership body at each Chapter.
- Are familiar with and support our Union contract.
- Participate in Union meetings and activities.
- Organize and mobilize co-workers to effectively address workplace issues.
- Help to distribute flyers and other communications with a network of activists.
- May participate in Labor-Management and other committees to improve workplace conditions.
- Support the bargaining process of the Chapters.

Additional details available. If interested, please talk with a Union Steward or our Union Representative.
